Sir,

With reference to letter No. 5132/Edn.28-14 dated 27th May 1915 from the Secretary to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, Departments of - Agriculture and Education, and to letter dated 19th April 1914 from your Private Secretary, asking me whether there are satisfactory indications to show that the scheme meets with an adequate amount of financial and other support at the hands of the public, I have the honour to submit that the following persons have signified their financial support as follows:-

His Holiness the Jagadguru Sree Shankaracharya of Kolhapur Mutt. Rs.250/- per year or Rs.6000/- Cash.

His Holiness the Swami of Sivaganga...Rs.100/- per year or Rs.2,500/- Cash.

The Hon'ble Sir P.S. Sivaswami Iyer (Madras), The Hon'ble Sir P.D. Pattani (Bombay), Sir S. Subrahmanya Iyer (Madras), Sir Balachendra Krishna (Bombay), Mr.V.P. Mr. Hari Narayan Apte (Poona) and Mr. T.K. Bala Subrahmanya Iyer (Srirangam) have agreed to pay Rs. 100/- each.

A number of Maharajas such as the Gaekwar of Baroda, the Chatrapathi of Kolhapur, whom I approached, have said that they would make their contributions after the Government of Mysore, in whose State the Institution is located, signifies what amount it proposes to give and in what shape its help should take.

I have also approached a member of the Viceroy's Council, with a view to obtaining help from the Government of India. And there is every hope of receiving its support.

Several gentlemen throughout India have already written to me promising their help though in smaller amount.

Next, the Journal of the Academy will have the active support from the best Scholars of India like Sir Dr. Rama Krishna Bhandarkar in the shape of literary contributions.

I herewith submit an advance copy of the First Issue for your kind perusal. The finished copy will be submitted in a day or two.

As I have to go to Simla shortly in this connection, I beg you will be so kind as to render the necessary support as hereunder for the movement:-

SIR,

22
CH With reference to your Official Memorandum No. 1058/Dan. 3-15-14 dated 2nd September 1915, I have the honour to state that a literary institution of the type of the Sanskrit Academy of India deserves encouragement and accordingly 20 copies of the journal may be subscribed and paid for from the allotment provided in the Budget under "Encouragement of Authors". The copies may be distributed as below:

English Colleges including Training College	4
English Government High Schools.	10
Oriental Library	1
Educational Library	1
Sanskrit Colleges	3
Secretariat Library	1
Two Public Libraries.	2
Total	22.

For copies supplied to the Oriental Library, the Educational Library, the Secretariat Library and the two Public Libraries, the subscriptions may be paid from their respective allotments. Only 17 copies may be paid for from the allotment under Encouragement of Authors.

Authors.

As regards the yearly grant of Rs.1,200, I am of opinion that the institution deserves, as I have already said, liberal encouragement and a special grant-in-aid may be sanctioned. As I am, however, unable to find any money this year by reappropriation from any of the Educational Budget Heads, the special grant may be kindly sanctioned from other sources.

I have the honour to be,
